AGENCIES.

San Francisco—MYRON ANGEL, 432 Montgomery St.—Room No. 11, Sole Agent for Richmond Star District, Utah—J. A. SCHMIDT & CO., Hamilton—T. STAIR, Russell's Bookstore. W. F. GEDLING, News Dealer in Goodrich's saloon, is our Agent in Ballinville, and is authorized to receive subscriptions for the Record and receipt for the same. Virginia City—JAS. McDONALD, Eureka—P. LOEWY & CO.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

The laws, both of the United States and of the State of Nevada, prohibit, under heavy penalties, the sale to any Indian of any firearms, ammunition or liquor, or even to give to an Indian either of the articles enumerated. The object of the law cannot fail to be comprehended by the most casual observer; yet, that it is violated in this section, is the general opinion of those who have the best means of obtaining correct information. It is also very clear to the minds of those at all acquainted with the subject, that the greater portion of the murders and other depredations committed by the Indians, can be traced primarily to their use of intoxicating drinks; and then, being supplied with firearms and ammunition, they are ready to go upon the war-path. Woe betide the luckless prospector or adventurer who encounters a band of these fellows who may be well armed, and their native savage instincts stimulated by the use of spirituous liquors. Many men have lost their lives from this cause. The settlers in remote localities are exposed to additional danger owing to the cupidty of white men, who, for the sake of profit, violate the laws of the country and outrage every sentiment of right and justice. Although we are sure the law is being violated, it is no easy matter to prove the fact against the guilty. It is therefore the duty of every citizen to aid the officers in their efforts to ferret out the guilty and bring them to punishment. U. S. Indian Agent Ingalls gives notice in our columns, this morning, that he will vigorously prosecute any infraction of the law which may be brought to his knowledge. In his endeavors to enforce the law against those who violate it, we are sure he will be seconded by the officers here, and he should receive the assistance of every good citizen.

ARRIVAL OF OUR NEW PRESS.

Yesterday the power press ordered by us some months since from Chicago, reached its destination. It is one of the Country Drum Cylinder Presses, from the celebrated manufactory of the Chicago Taylor Printing Press Co. It is No. 1 of that pattern, having a bed 32x46 inches in dimensions. This places us in position to meet the wants of our increasing patronage more fully than heretofore. Having an abiding faith in the future prosperity of Pioche, we are confident that the outlay caused by this increase of facilities will be met by increased patronage from the people and business men of Pioche, in behalf of whom and for whose advancement we shall labor with unabated zeal. The new press will be put in position and set to work early next week. Our friends who have an interest in the modus operandi of such machine, are invited to visit our office and inspect it.

APPOINTMENT.—Charles H. Belknap, late Private Secretary to Gov. Bradley, has been appointed a Justice of the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Justice Garber. The appointee will be entitled to hold office until the election of his successor two years hence. Of Judge Belknap the Virginia Chronicle says:

Mr. Belknap is a native of New Jersey, 29 years of age, and came to this State from New York some years ago, entering upon the practice of law in Belmont, Nye county, where he was nominated for District Judge in 1870, but was defeated by a few votes by his Republican competitor. He is a studious young lawyer of more than average ability, and a gentleman of spotless private character. For the past two years he has been the able and efficient Private Secretary to his Excellency, Governor Bradley, and his appointment to a position on the Supreme Bench will be hailed with satisfaction by all who have learned to appreciate his ability as a lawyer and his worth as a gentleman.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met yesterday: Present, Lewis, C. J., Whitman, J. P. Warren, et al. vs. John Quill continued for the term by consent. Opinions were filed affirming the cases of the State vs. Mollie Forshee, and the State vs. Daniel Baker et al. [Carson Appeal, 16th.

CLOSE.—Savage, Dem., is elected to the Assembly from Elko county, by one vote over Meacham, Rep. Jos. E. Jones, Dem., is chosen Sheriff of Washoe county by two majority. T. V. Julien was elected District Attorney of Humboldt county by three majority.

Two silver bricks, supposed to have been robbed from the Overland Stage in Six-mile Canyon, near Virginia, have been recovered by the police of that city, and two men—J. Wright and Thomas Cookling—have been arrested for the alleged robbery.

J. H. HARRIS is a candidate for Secretary of the Senate.

Telegraphic Dispatches.

SPECIAL TO THE POCHE DAILY RECORD

PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Martin Bulger will contest the seat of J. S. Merrill in the Board of Fire Commissioners.

Amongst other reports about the case, it is now stated that the Lent-Harpending diamond fields are about 20 miles south of Green River Station, Colorado.

Waubitz shot himself because he drew a blank in the Havana lottery.

San Rafael, Cal., November 21.—It is rumored that the breach of promise case of Gardner vs. Short is ended, defendant compromising by paying $10,000. Plaintiff sued for $50,000.

A meeting will be held to discuss a plan for building a railroad between this place and Petaluma. Such a railroad would lessen the time of transit between San Francisco and Petaluma half a day. A wagon maker was thrown from his horse, and had his leg broken—a compound fracture.

The line of steamers between Petaluma and San Francisco has been sold to the C. P. R. Co.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—The lady who took chloroform and died from its effects was the wife of Dr. B. F. Hardy. The case was purely accidental. The lady was greatly esteemed by all who knew her.

James Boyce shot at H. M. Bodd this morning with a Derringer, but missed his aim. He was arrested and is now under examination for assault to murder.

No verdict yet in the case of Otto Klappenberg vs. J. J. Haley.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—A company has been organized here to explore and work the new diamond fields, and will start off a party of experts to-morrow. They will go to the northern regions of Colorado and southern Wyoming.

A great crowd of people is collected in front of Platt's Hall expecting to hear a lecture by she of the golden locks and Sunny South, on wolves. The hall is not lighted and a large detail of policemen are on hand to keep the peace.

H. J. O'Reilly, recently appointed Wharfinger, resigned to-day, and the Board of Harbor Commissioners re-elected him. Engineer Arnold was instructed to examine all the wharves and report on their condition.

Henry Chine had one of his legs broken this afternoon by jumping out of a wagon.

Application has been made to have certain bonds of the Western Pacific Railroad companies placed on the call list of the Stock Exchange.

Wadsworth (Nev.), Nov. 21.—Edward S. Beardsley, yardman in the employ of the C. P. R. Co., was instantly killed this morning while on duty with the yard engine. As no one witnessed the accident it is supposed Beardsley attempted to get on the engine while it was backing up the track, and making a misstep was thrown under the wheels of the locomotive. He was 22 years of age and leaves a young wife.

EASTERN.

Boston, Nov. 21.—Otis Norcross declines the candidacy for Mayor of Boston.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The Evening Post's Washington special says: Secretary Fish authorizes the statement that he does not intend to accept the English Mission, or any other diplomatic appointment, upon his retirement from the Cabinet on the 4th of March next. Secretary Delano's friends are working to create a feeling here favorable to his appointment as Treasurer, in the event of Boutwell's election to the Senate.

Butler writes to a friend that he is not a candidate for the Senate against Boutwell, and before he enters the Senatorial arena, he expects to be Governor of Massachusetts.

Attorney-General Williams has decided adversely on the claim of C. A. Perry & Co., for compensation for cattle, wagons, etc., lost or destroyed in accompanying the troops into Utah, against the Mormons, in 1857.

New York, Nov. 21.—Fire destroyed Perrin & Haynes's steam saw-mill, 14th street, Jersey City, and extended to Jarvis & Harwood's tobacco inspection warehouse, burning 500 hogheads of tobacco, valued at $1,200,000.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The President to-day appointed G. W. Farman Postmaster of Philadelphia vice Binham, resigned.

Nelson, Minister to Mexico, had a long interview with the President this afternoon in relation to the condition of affairs in that country. He speaks in praise of the new President of Mexico, particularly his intelligence and desire to preserve the friendship now existing between his country and the United States. There seems to be no obstacle in the way of concluding the new convention extending the time for disposing of the remaining claims before the United States and Mexican Mixed Commission, which, by limitation will expire in February next. It is stated that President Tejada is anxious for such extension, and will appoint an agent in good faith to carry out the design of the Commission.

Boston, Nov. 20.—7 p. m.—Fire broke out in Rand & Avery's large printing house, foot of Washington street, and the entire establishment will be destroyed. Adjoining buildings on Cornhill are threatened. General fire alarm sounded, and fire departments of Charlestown called upon.

New York, Nov. 20.—Sergeant Thompson and three aids of the Health Department, report that after inspecting all markets in the city and numerous wholesale poultry establishments, they found no chicken disease.

Stanley arrived by the Cuba and was escorted up Bay street by a delegation from the Geographical Society and the Herald Club.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 20.—The Governor to-day notified the Legislature convened at the capitol, and consisting of Conservative members, that he would send a message to-morrow. In reply to the committee from the Republican members, who had an organization as a Legislature at the U. S. Court rooms, the Governor set forth in writing the legality of the organization of the Legislature at the capitol, the usual place of meeting, which was supreme and insurmountable. Necessity only can change the place of meeting. He was ignorant of any such necessity; therefore he declined to have any official communication with those assembled in the court room.

New York, Nov. 21.—Geo. M. Perry, a merchant of Louisville, is missing since Thursday last; was known to have carried large sums of money. Apprehensions are felt that he has been murdered.

The Times upon authority of Watson, President of the Erie Railroad, says H. F. Sweetzer, Manager of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, has resigned, and paid over $75,000 to Gen. McClellan, President of that Company, who had detected him in connivance with residents along the line of the road in appropriating a portion of the Company's receipts. Friends of Sweetzer deny his guilt. The Secretary of the Great Western road is at Meadville making full investigation.

Stokes in his next trial will be defended by new counsel, his former counsel having retired.

Steamship San Salvador, from Havana, with 250 freedmen for Liberia, arrived last evening. They are the advance guard of 3,000 emigrants.

The Capron, second vessel of the Japanese fleet building in these waters, will make a trial trip in a few days.

From an official statement of shipments of wool to Boston and sales made there, it is estimated that more than two 2,000,000 pounds were lost by the fire of the tenth.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—A St. Paul special has the startling story that 800 track layers on a new railroad, an extension of the Winona and St. Peter's road, are snowed in 100 miles from any white settlement, and with short allowance of food.

A Malison (Wis.) special says that Minister Washburn, who was visiting his brother in that city, denies being a candidate for U. S. Senator, or for a Cabinet position or any other office.

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Subscription books of the Centennial Board of Finance were opened to-day throughout the United States. Jay Cook & Co. and Drexel & Co. are the general agents of the Commission in receiving and securing subscriptions.

New York, Nov. 21.—The bark Samuel Larrabe, from Savannah for Bremen, and Lancaster, from Baltimore for Belfast, were lost at sea, with all on board.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Lieut. Fred. Grant is ordered to join his regiment.

FOREIGN.

Paris, Nov. 21.—The National Assembly has given its approval to the discussion, at an early day, of the project for restoring to the Orleans Princes their confiscated property.

Paris, midnight, via London, 6 a. m., Nov. 21.—Marshall McMahon refuses the Presidency, in case M. Thiers should resign.

London, Nov. 21.—The trouble in the Metropolitan Police continues. 70 Bow street constables and 39 Kensington officers have been dismissed from the service.

London, Nov. 21.—A morning dispatch received here from New York, announcing the report current there of the resignation of Thiers, and other changes in the Government of France, is false. Up to this hour there has not even been a rumor of the resignation of Thiers.

Paris, Nov. 21.—Thiers will not appear to-day before the Committee appointed to draw up an address in reply to his message at the opening of the National Assembly. He will, however, attend the meeting of the Committee to-morrow.

Information comes to us that the English Government is about to introduce into their telegraphic system an idea not dissimilar to that of the cheap postal cards—sixpenny telegrams all over the country, thus placing the telegraph within the reach of all. The English are ahead of us in this kind of enterprise; they were the first to reduce postage. The money-order system is of English origin. The penny postal cards were invented by them. The English have taken possession of the telegraphic wires and work them in connection with the Postoffice. Our Government will be compelled in time to do the same. The telegraph is too useful and of too much public importance to continue a monopoly in the hands of private individuals. It is now abused. Newspapers not within the favored ring are denied equal privileges and public news is either withheld or sold to the people at extravagant prices. A free telegraph under control of Government with cheap messages will prove of immense benefit to the people.—[S. F. Chronicle,

GEN. MEADE.—From an exchange we obtain the following sketch of Gen. Geo. Gordon Meade, lately deceased:

General Meade, according to an authority before us, was born at Cadiz, in Spain, fifty-six years ago, and graduated at West Point in the year 1835. He entered the regular army, and, after serving with distinction in the Florida war, against the Seminole Indians, resigned his commission in 1836, and lived in retirement for about six years. He also served, in the capacity of lieutenant of topographical engineers, in the Mexican war, but it was in the rebellion in our own States, and notably in the battles of Mechanicsville, Gain's Mill, Antietam and Fredericksburg, in 1862, that General Meade distinguished himself in an eminent degree. He was appointed commander-in-chief of the army of the Potomac in June, 1863, and, during the three days of July following, fought the battle of Gettysburg, for which he subsequently received the thanks of Congress. During the Richmond campaign, as commander of the army of the Potomac, he signally distinguished himself. At the time of his death General Meade was in command of the military division of the Atlantic, with headquarters at Philadelphia. He was a brave soldier and a true gentleman.

The Eureka Sentinel is much displeased at the appointment of Judge Belknap to a seat upon the Supreme Bench. The Carson Register speaks in terms of highest commendation of the appointment.

Goldsmith Maid and Lucy were among the distinguished arrivals in the Quaker City a few days ago.

Born.

MULCAHY.—In Pioche, Nov. 21, 1872, the wife of Maurice Mulcahy, of a son.
